How to Embed HTLM Code in Blackboard

In the content you want to embed look for the embed code, it will generally have a symbol that looks like this </>. Once you have found the code copy it.

In your course create an item and give it a title then click on the html button in the text editor.
In the window that pops up paste the embed code and click update.

Click submit on the item and your html content will be embedded in your course.