1. Start at the Legal Studies subject guide: libguides.gvsu.edu/LS

2. In the Legal Databases box, click on Westlaw.

3. Click on the State Materials tab, and then select Michigan.

5. Now that you’ve selected the appropriate materials to search, type a keyword related to the statute or rule you are looking for in the main search box, and hit enter. In the example below Michigan Statutes & Court Rules was selected. Thus, all available Michigan Statutes and Court Rules are being searched for information on arraignment in this search.

![Image of search results]

Note: You can search federal materials in the same way having selected federal statutes, or federal rules, in step four.

6. The example above returned both Michigan statutes, and Michigan Court Rules, as well as encyclopedic/overview secondary sources. Secondary sources are located under Related Documents on the right side of results screen.

![Image of related documents]

7. Click on the statute or rule to open it. To print: Click the email/envelope icon in the upper right corner, and select print from the menu.